

NOMINATION FORM

Future 100 in Shipping

Future 100 in Shipping - Who is it for?

Ambitious professionals aged approximately 25–40 from Danish Shipping's member companies and other key maritime players.

Commercially and technically strong profiles with leadership potential – ranging from superintendents, asset managers, engineers, chartering managers, to decarbonization specialists, all are welcome to be nominated as long as they're identified as talents by their leadership.

How to nominate your talent

Membership is by nomination only, with candidates put forward by leadership within Danish Shipping member companies to ensure quality, commitment, and the right level of ambition.

Fill out the information about the talent you want to nominate below and send it to:
